

ADVENT CHRISTMAS WEEK 1 – HOPE

BEST USE

As a way to anticipate the celebration of the birth of Jesus and recapture the tradition of Advent in your home this Christmas season.

SPIRITUAL VALUE

The word Advent comes from the Latin word that means coming or arrival. For centuries the Church has celebrated the four-week Advent season by lighting candles in a wreath and reflecting on the coming of Jesus as told in Scripture. The circle of the wreath represents God's never-ending love for us, the evergreens represent Christ's gift of eternal life, and the candles announce Jesus as the Light of the World.

ADVANCE PREPARATION

Use the wreath you purchased from FAITH. Arrange it in the center of your table throughout the Christmas season. Use this Advent activity to guide your family through a brief moment of reflection during a meal or bedtime snack one night each week.

LIGHT THE FIRST CANDLE

Before eating, light the first candle. Many different Christian traditions have used different colored candles (white, blue, purple, red). The color of the candles does not matter. Just like when we take Communion at home during virtual worship, the remembrance is what is important, not the actual make-up of the elements. Consider taking turns lighting the candles and reading the verses each week.

EXPLAIN

The first week of Advent is the week of Hope. The story of Jesus' birth actually began thousands of years before he was born. God promised the people of Israel that He would provide a Messiah (Savior) to save them from their sins. For centuries, the people of Israel waited with great hope for the Messiah to come.

READ

Isaiah 7:14 – “Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son and will call him Immanuel.”

EXPLAIN

The prophet Isaiah, who lived hundreds of years before Jesus, predicted the birth of Jesus as a promise of hope from God. The word Immanuel means, God living with us and was fulfilled when Jesus came to live on earth as the Messiah.

DISCUSS

- What is something you are hoping for this Christmas?
- What is the hardest part of waiting until Christmas to receive your presents?
- Can you imagine waiting hundreds of years for Jesus to come like the people of Israel had to?

PRAY

Father in heaven, thank you for the gift of your son Jesus who was not only the hope of Israel thousands of years ago, but our hope of salvation today. Help us to keep the hope of Jesus in our home this Christmas season. Amen.
